

Our region is facing tough challenges.

Despite that, considering the future is as important as ever for the region's vitality.

The New York Metropolitan Transportation Council (NYMTC) is working on the next Regional Transportation Plan for the diverse region of New York City, Lower Hudson Valley, and Long Island. Let's work together to explore and plan for the future of transportation in the region.

There are many opportunities to participate. Please join us to help keep our region Moving Forward.
